THE SHAPE OF MOTION
DESIGNED BY Colani

Here comes the street-ray

Created by German Design Star Luigi Colani, the street-ray puts an end to uniformity on the road.

The first impression of this outstanding piece of design already proves that this car is really meant to be on the move.

The extremely low mass centre and the outstanding geometrical shape of the street-ray guarantee its superb road holding.

Powered by a high performance 500cc engine the street-ray is the ultimate choice for car lovers who go in for both exceptional design and limitless driving fun!
